About Our Company

Fine Things International, Inc. (DBA Fine Things Packages)

Our company headquarters is located at 404 N. 31st Street, Billings, MT 59101 and we maintain a permanent representative office in New York City at 401 Broadway, Suite 2501, New York, NY 10007. Temporary offices are opened annually in selected cities world-wide to provide services for our events. We maintained offices recently in Frankfurt (World Cup 2006), Miami (Super Bowl XLI), Athens (Champions League Final) and Paris (Rugby World Cup).

Fine Things Packages is a leading provider of packages for major "sold out" sports events worldwide.

We are one of the few true global companies in our industry. Most of our competitors do not offer substantial packages to clients beyond their borders—or to events that are not national passions in their own country. As our testimonials indicate our customers come from across the globe, and we host major events internationally where virtually all of our clients are based abroad. Our clients range from fans to major corporations, and governmental entities in numerous diverse countries—depending on the event. Many of our events, such as the World Cup, Rugby World Cup and Champions League Final are located in different countries every year. We have developed some of the industry's best service systems and specialized expertise that enables us to take large numbers of corporate clients and fans to such events, no matter where they are located on earth.

We have the Best Service Team in the Industry.

We provide continuing services to ensure that your package is precisely what we agreed to deliver. From the time you first contact the company, you will be provided direct lines to the manager and staff that will serve you throughout the contract. Once the event approaches, our event concierge will be "at your service" throughout the event. Our service team is there to ensure that you have the time of your life, and we have a client for life.

Fine Things is independent.

This guarantees you the best values in the industry. Fine Things is unique in the "sold out" packaging business. We do not have a conflict of interest. We are not affiliated with any box office, ticket brokerage, hotel, airline, or with any event sponsor such as the NFL, FIFA, Wimbledon, or the Masters. Our primary job is to negotiate with such suppliers for the best prices for our clients. This is why we can offer the best value for your money for comparable packages in the industry.

Your transaction is secure.

We guarantee our packages and services in written contract. Our company maintains a permanent brick-and-mortar presence at our corporate headquarters in Billings, Montana and in New York. Our Montana location allows us to provide savings to our package purchasers, as neither sales tax nor value added tax are applicable. Billings is the largest city in Montana but is small enough for our company's reputation to be known in our business community. We provide references from our bankers, accountants and professional advisors upon request, and accept most major credit cards.

We are a member of the Better Business Bureau (BBB) and the American Society of Travel Agents (ASTA).

We adhere to both organizations' Code of Ethics. The Better Business Bureau's Spokane, Washington office maintains a permanent file on our company. You may contact them directly at: (509) 455 4200 or obtain an on-line report on the company by merely clicking the BBB Reliability link that appears on our web site. ASTA is the leading association of travel suppliers & agencies in the world with over 5,000 members.

Client Testimonials

"Wow! We had a great time— thanks to you! Everything was what you promised and that was so nice. We certainly had our doubts about you folks right up until we got our game tickets. But that was only because we didn't know if you were legit. Well you are! My disabled husband was treated with respect at every level – flights, game, limo driver and fellow fans. Thanks for making his dream come true. We would recommend you to anyone else who may have their doubts. Fine Things Packages is the real thing!"
